What better way to begin a season of celebration than by coming 'home for the holidays' to a cocktail party featuring delightful small plates prepared by guest chef Phuong Nguyen, former owner of Annam Restaurant Vietnamien. Our hosts are once again sharing their warm, cozy, festive home during the holidays...there's a bit of Christmas in every corner of every room. Each room has its own color theme and special touches, from the snowmen in the kitchen to the gilded fruit tree in the dining room. Even walking up to the front door will be a December delight!
